MADISON – Wisconsin’s cranberry growers have elected two new directors to the industry’s market order board. Elected were Robert N. Detlefsen of Wisconsin Rapids and Gabriella Mubarak of Tomah.

The two will serve three-year terms starting September 1.

The seven-member Wisconsin Cranberry Board, Inc. is responsible for overseeing the collection and use of about $488 thousand in assessment fees paid by Wisconsin cranberry growers. The money is used to support the industry through research, market development and consumer education.

The Wisconsin Department of Agriculture, Trade and Consumer Protection (DATCP) administers elections for the Wisconsin Cranberry Board and other commodity marketing boards in the state. To learn more about the market order boards, visit:
